

The Central Valley CSD Music Department strives to provide a foundation for life-long learners, listeners, and participants of music through a variety of musical experiences in the music classroom, rehearsals and performances.